

- Value Creation Model

We are committed to solving societal issues by investing management resources in a unique business model that is supported by our mission, sustainability policy, and governance structure. Through the results of these efforts and the value they provide to society at large, we aim to realize our vision and create a virtuous cycle that enables continuous and sustainable value creation.

